SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. At the beginning of February, Chinese Communists came to Bangkok from Malaya. Two days after their arrival the Siamese Police lost their trail. They had important documents with them and spent each night in a different house. They were usually well dressed.
2. A few days after the arrival of the Chinese Communists from Malaya, three Chinese Communists from Burma also arrived in Bangkok. A few days afterward, despite all the efforts of the Siamese police, their trail was lost. Around 20 February, the Siamese police succeeded in rediscovering their trail which led to Paknam. However, five hours before the arrival of the Siamese police, both the Chinese Communists who had come from Malaya and those from Burma had left for Cochin China aboard a motor launch.*
